

The event of the week
was the complete eclipse of the moon.
Here it is over Portarlinton.
The rest of the week the morning colours
varied from gold to red with some stormy grey-blues thrown in.

The lush looking greens in the paddock are misleading as we need more rain again.

For stunning images of the eclipse:

<http://www.abc.net.au/backyard/stories/s2017860.htm>

and for a slide show with sound

<http://www.smh.com.au/multimedia/2007/national/australia-lunar-eclipse/index.htm>

