

September 2 to 8

This week there were some golden-mauve mornings and one morning of dramatic dark clouds combined with bright light.

The final photo is of sunset rather than sunrise. The air was clear enough to see the setting sun reflected in the glass towers of Melbourne across Port Phillip Bay.

The beasties seem contented!

